Synopsis:

The former Sanctuary of the Waterville United Methodist Church has housed the Angel Shelter, supporting those in need around the Toledo area, for the past ten years. Unfortunately, due to a dwindling congregation, the current church can no longer financially sustain the budget funding the shelter. The founders, members of the church choir, decide to put on a show to raise the revenue necessary to keep the Angel Shelter open through the winter. This small church is full of hilarious characters and most importantly God's love. From health issues to a blizzard, there are many obstacles to overcome in order to produce a show big enough to save the Angel Shelter. Will they succeed?

This family-friendly, easy-to-produce, musical-comedy provides lots of laughs, familiar Christmas carols and original songs the audience will leave the venue singing. The show is inviting and demonstrates what people could do if they just worked together, trusted in God, and shared His love with the world. Make this show part of your next Christmas season!
